  - d) the place in the Bible Story

LEARN – What does it mean?

- 1) What type of writing is it?
- 2) Answer the questions
- 3) Summarise the passage

LISTEN – What is the message?

- 1) Which is the main point?
- 2) Which is the key verse?

LIVE – How should we respond?

- 1) What does it show about God,
(Father, Son, Holy Spirit) :
  - a) His nature and character?
  - b) His grace*
  - c) Jesus / his salvation**
- 2) What should I do?

* God's undeserved generosity is evident throughout the Bible, and it is perfectly expressed in Jesus.

** The Bible, from 'the fall' onwards, describes God's plan of salvation through his Son. Thus, all the Scriptures speak in some way of Jesus (Luke 24:27).

The seven studies in this booklet

This second booklet looks at seven representative passages in Isaiah 40-66, taken from the last three of Isaiah's sections. Another booklet covers Isaiah 1-39. Explore all 14 studies, and you will have a good grasp of Isaiah's contribution to our world.

READING PROPHECY IN THE BIBLE

Whatever we read, we adjust to its style. We approach a newspaper, a cookery book, a poem and a scientific report in different ways. We take into account the purpose for which it was written and the way the writer uses words.

Since the Bible has many styles - law, poetry, history, prophecy, etc. - we need to allow for the style if we are to discern what God is saying. Isaiah is mainly prophecy, mostly expressed in poetry. To approach it properly, keep in mind the following principles:

1) In general - it is God's story

The Bible tells the story of God's dealings with humankind. After creation and 'the fall' in Genesis 1-3, the rest describes how he works out his unfolding plan to rescue humankind through Jesus. The Old Testament (OT) prepares for the coming and the death of Jesus. The New Testament (NT) describes the event and looks forwards to his return at the end of time. It is all about God. It follows that:

- a) Every part relates to Him (Luke 24:27; John 5:39). So as we read, we ask, ‘what does this show about God? What is He doing?’
- b) Everything is relevant. In a movie, every scene plays some part in the overall story. Often the early stages of a film show things that make no sense until later. The Bible is the same. So as we read prophecy, often knowing the outcome already, we ask, ‘what relevance has this part to the main story?’

2) In particular - ‘follow the camera angle’

A film director focuses our attention on particular shots to tell ‘his story’. In the same way the prophet is selective about what he tells us. He omits much general detail, only giving us items relevant to what he is trying to convey.

As we read we should therefore be asking the question - why is he telling me this, and in this particular way?

3) The nature of prophecy

The Bible uses the word ‘prophet’ to mean a person authorised by God to speak for him, and inspired by the Holy Spirit so that what he says, God says (2 Peter 1:20-21; 2 Timothy 3:16-17). God had made a covenant, or special agreement, with his people; he had a special concern to hold his people to it.

4) The scope of prophecy

To read prophecy we need a tri-focal lens! A text may be referring to the immediate time-frame, the coming of Jesus made flesh among us, or His coming as Judge at the end of time. The difficulty in reading prophecy is that these may all be included, but mixed up, apparently at random!

READING ISAIAH

The Author

Isaiah lived in Jerusalem (7:3, 37:2), was married, with at least two sons (7:3; 8:3). His name means ‘The LORD saves’, which is the heart of his prophecy.

The Purpose

‘Come now, let us reason together,’ says the LORD. ‘Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow ... If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the best from the land. But if you resist and rebel, you will be devoured by the sword. For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.’ (Is 1:18-20)

Notice that Isaiah is not just predicting what will happen. He is appealing to people to turn to God. If they do turn, God will forgive and protect them. If they do not, God’s judgement will fall on them. He hopes readers will:

- a. NOTE his vision – salvation or judgment
- b. BELIEVE the truths displayed – our sinfulness and his saviour-hood
- c. RECEIVE the Lord’s provision – the rescue he offers in God’s name

Isaiah was mostly writing chapters 1-39 of his book to the people of Judah (the area around Jerusalem) about 730 years before Jesus Christ lived, to call them to repent; and chapters 40-66 to their descendants who would be living in exile 150 years later, to comfort and encourage them. (See the table of dates on page 5.) But through him God promised some things in detail such as the birth and death of Jesus Christ; so the prophecy is also addressed to all people throughout history.

He warns of the judgement that is on its way as he writes (5:5-6) and of the greater, final judgement of the impenitent (2:12-21; 66:24); but he also promises a coming Saviour (52:13–53:12) and offers all people a new start, and fullness of life, through belonging to him: free! (55:1-7)

What was happening then?

Isaiah prophesied through four reigns from 740 to about 700BC (1:1). The people we call the Jews, God's people Israel, had split into two kingdoms:

The northern kingdom, Israel, also known as Ephraim, had Samaria as capital; and Judah, the southern kingdom, with its capital, Jerusalem.

Sometimes Isaiah uses 'Israel' to mean all the people, of both kingdoms.

The joint enemy to their north and east was the empire Assyria. Isaiah warned that Assyria would invade their land and plunder Samaria (8:3-8); this happened a few years later while Isaiah was still active as a prophet. Many Israelites were deported to Assyria as prisoners of war. Israel became part of the Assyrian empire and ceased to exist as a separate kingdom.

So when you read warnings such as 8:3-8 'Because you have rejected God's reign, Assyria will invade', you can say to yourself, 'that was the news-flash of its day – and it came true: what does that say about God who inspired it?'

The next great empire was Babylon. Isaiah warned that they would conquer the remaining kingdom, Judah, and deport the people in turn as prisoners of war (39:5). This took place in a series of invasions about a century later, after Isaiah's death. Again, what God said came true!

To prepare for the time of exile in Babylon, Isaiah wrote chapters 40-66 to comfort those future Israelites. Though he had died by the time it happened he wrote in advance: like writing a message for your great-grandchildren.

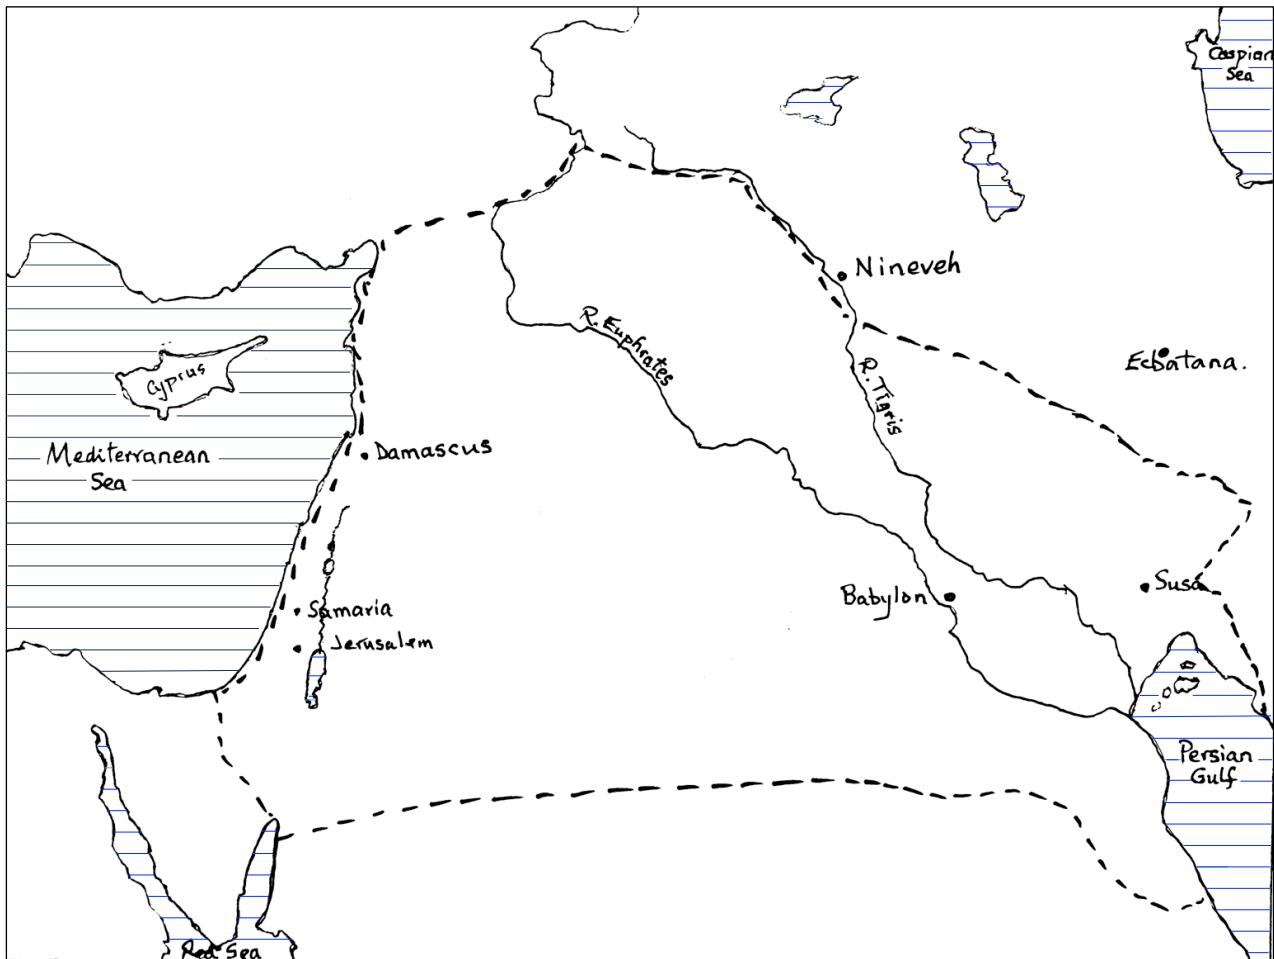

Chapter 40 sets the scene for the rest of the book. The 27 chapters are in three groups of nine, each with a special emphasis: See Table of Contents p1

Isaiah signals his divisions by ending each with the surprising, solemn statement 'There is no rest for the wicked:' 48:22, 57:21 and (even more strongly) 66:24, the words with which he ends his prophecy.

These prophetic chapters were primarily designed to comfort the exiled Jews. God had not forgotten them or cast them out. On the contrary, his purpose to bring the world his son as saviour still stood. These notes of comfort, and prediction of Jesus, dominate Isaiah 40 – 66.

MAP: Middle East affected by Isaiah's Prophecy

Key, taking the cities from west to east:

- Jerusalem: capital of southern kingdom, Judah
- Samaria: capital of northern kingdom, Israel
- Damascus: capital of Syria (Aram): see, eg, ch.7 v.1
- Nineveh: capital of Assyria
- Babylon: capital of Babylonia
- Ecbatana: capital of Medo-Persia for Cyrus' first two years
- Susa: capital of Medo-Persia after that (later Persepolis was: further south, to east of Persian Gulf)

Assyrian Empire: a little smaller than dotted line, with some land to north of it.

Babylonian Empire: area shown by dotted line.

Medo-Persian Empire: all that area, and Asia Minor all the way to the Mediterranean, and south west to northern Sudan, and territory to the east another 600 miles all the way to the Syr Darya river in what is now Eastern Uzbekistan. See also Esther 1.1. Cyrus' achievement (first emperor of the united Medo-Persian empire) is stunning.

HOW TO USE THIS LEADER'S GUIDE

The first page in each week's study explains matters that would have been known to the original hearers but not to readers today.

The 'Bible connections' show where the Bible refers to similar themes. Bibles that provide 'cross references' give the same kind of information.

In this Leader's Guide, the questions under 'LOOK' are those that others happen to have asked. The Leader should not read them out; unlike other types of study guides, they have not been carefully refined to elucidate the main points. Instead, enable your group to ask their own questions, and write them down. If there are too many for the time available, select the most pressing.

If any coincide with the questions shown in 'LOOK', the matching possible Answers offered in 'LEARN' may help the group if they get stuck. But wait till everyone has tried to work out their own answers first.

In all printed volumes in the series, instructions on using Hearing the Word are shown in brief on the inside front cover. Suggestions on how to use the process with a group appear on the inside back cover.

A 4-hour training course is available, 'Introduction to Hearing the Word' . Address on back cover.

Study 1

40:1-31

Comfort for the future Jews in exile

Background

After the message of disaster in 39:5-7 comes the message of comfort in chapter 40. God's promises may be forfeited but they cannot perish. He alone is the Creator and his people are his central concern. 41:1-7 tell us he is the ruler of history.

Word list

1	says your God	imperfect tense, so = 'keeps saying'
2	Jerusalem	capital city of Judah
5	glory of the Lord	= the Lord's presence see Exodus 16:10; 40:34f
10	Zion	name for Jerusalem, city on a hill
18	God	Hebrew el is the most transcendent of the OT's words for God.
26	created	the Hebrew verb here is reserved for divine action.
29	weary	= failure, or bowed down, under life's pressures
	weak	= lack of innate strength
	power	related to word for 'bone' ie durable and stable

Bible Connections

2	sin has been paid for	OT uses passive tense only of God's acceptance of the Levitical offerings see Leviticus 1:4; 7:18; 19:7
3	prepare the way	Predicts John Baptist see Mark 1:3-8; Luke 3:2-17
5	Glory of Lord seen	see John 1.14
8	The Word of our God stands for ever. cf Psalm 33:6,9; 148:5
10	the Lord's arm	see 48:14; 51:5,9; 52:10; 53:1; 59:16; 62:8; 63:5,12
11	shepherd	see Psalm 23; Micah 5:4; Ezekiel 34:2ff, 23f; John 10:11-30
13	understood mind of Lord	see Job ch. 38,39
18	folly of idolatry	see 41:5-7,21-24,29; 42:8,17; 44:6-20; 46:1-7
22	He sits enthroned.	see Daniel 7:9-14; Revelation 4:1-6
23	He brings princes to naught.	see Jeremiah 27:5; Daniel 4:17,34f.
29	He gives strength to the weak:	see Matthew 11:28-30

A song about God's coming servant

Background

Chapter 41 'See, they are all false' (v29) points to the emptiness that marks the Gentile world. Chapter 42 introduces God's remedy, 'Here is my servant.'

Vs 1-4 the Lord speaks of his servant, describing his task;
 Vs 5-9 the Lord speaks to his servant, confirming his task.

Justice is the leading idea of this first Servant Song.

Word List

1	Here	the Hebrew word ben is better translated, 'See'
	My Spirit	mode of the Lord's personal presence and action and the special endowment of leaders
4	establishes	Hebrew for 'to set or place', as in Deuteronomy 4:44
4	law	teaching, revelation of God's will see 1:10
	islands	landmasses, countries in general as in 40:15
6	Gentiles	non-Jews
	Covenant	a unilateral declaration, sealed with a sacrifice, of a commitment by a 'superior', and entered into with agreement by an 'inferior'.

Bible connections

How great is our God!

Background

We are still in the first section of 40-66, the promise of a return to the holy land by permission of the future Medo-Persian emperor Cyrus. What a God, to have even the rulers of the world at his disposal! A major theme in 40-48 is God's incomparable greatness, for instance, this chapter, 44.

Word List

2	Jeshurun	poetic variant of Israel. Hebrew means 'the upright one'
4	Spirit	the Spirit of the Lord see Isaiah 11:2; Mark 1:8-11
6	Redeemer	the one who pays the ransom/price see v22

§6 Chapters 49-57 The Rescue by God's Servant

Study 4 52:13–53

Our Saviour, and how He saves us

Background

The heart of chapters 49-57 is the rescue that the coming Servant of God, (who is, as we now know, Jesus Christ) will achieve for us by his life, death and resurrection. The central chapter, in every sense, is Isaiah 53. The New Testament often refers to it, sometimes word for word (eg Matthew 8:17; Acts 8:32f, 1 Peter 2:24f). Note the repeated, emphatic 'he'.

The poem is symmetrical – 5 sections of 3 verses. It begins and ends with the exaltation of the Servant. Section 2 and 4 speak of his rejection. The centre-piece is 53:4-6, which describes the atoning significance of his suffering.

Word list

Ch 52	13 act wisely	the wisdom of true prudence
14	human likeness	'sons of man' ie common humanity
15	sprinkle	the work of a priest, removing the defilement that separates sinners from God ( eg Ex 24:6-8; 1 Peter 1:2)
	shut their mouths	ie overwhelmed, silent from shock, and respect

Ch 53	1 arm of the Lord	powerful act of God
--------------	--------------------------	---------------------

3	esteemed	an accountancy word ie a reckoning up of value
	considered	same Hebrew word as esteemed in v3b
	pierced	usually means pierced fatally
	crushed	used of people being crushed to death (Lament'ns 3:34)
5	transgressions	deliberate flouting of the Lord and his law
	iniquities	Hebrew to bend double ie the bent-ness of human nature
	peace	Hebrew shalom , to be whole or complete
8	descendants	but see v. 10!

Bible Connections

God's free offer of salvation

Background and Word List

In his saving work, the Servant has done everything; the way is now open for response, pure and simple, to enjoy a feast for which someone else has paid. There is free entrance into life (1-5) through the moral and spiritual response of returning to God (6-11)

1a	come	the first one is better translated 'Hey!' ie a summons; the remaining three are plural, imperative words.
	all you who are thirsty	is singular: every single person who thirsts
3	soul	the whole essential person
	faithful love	translates a plural Hebrew word 'the dependable acts of steadfast or covenant loves'
	David	This is his only mention in chs 40-66, but it links 'servant' with Kingly Messiah prophesied in 7:13ff
5	nations	Heb goy = the world outside the pale of Israel ie the whole Gentile world
6	near	Heb qarab is part of vocabulary of next-of-kinship see Ruth 2:20; 3:12; 4:4
7	turn	= turn back, return
13	pine, myrtle	translations of type of tree vary but all are evergreen.

Bible connections

1	thirsty	Psalm 63:1; 84:2; John 7:37-39; Revelation 22:17
	without money	1 Peter 1:18-21
2	what is not bread	John 6:25-35
3	God's faithful love and Covenant see Psalm 89; Luke 1:67-79; Hebrews 8:7f
5	nations coming to the Lord	Zechariah 8:20-23; 9:9,10

New heavens and a new earth

Background information

The special emphasis of §7, ch 58-66, is that God will wind up history and, in some cataclysmic way, create new heavens and earth from our universe. The section has warnings for the impenitent but this passage enlarges our hearts in telling us what God has prepared for those who love him.

It seems we cannot in this life understand what the next will be like. The author C.S.Lewis likens it to a small child trying to understand why his parents enjoy going to bed together – ‘I know! You have chocolate hidden under the pillow.’ He lacks the capacity to make sense of the adult experience; and we lack the capacity to make sense of the new heavens and earth.

So the Bible either uses negatives (there will be no more death or pain, (Revelation 20:4) or, as here, uses ‘more than’ picture language taken from what we know now: ‘Jerusalem will be a delight’ (18,19), ‘we’ll live as long as trees’ (22). In fact this world’s Jerusalem will no longer exist, and we will live not just longer but for ever (25:6-9, 26:19). Our passage describes the next life in metaphor: in pictures with a message, but taken from this life’s experience.

Word List

17 Behold, I will...	should read For behold, I will...
	create OT uses this word in this form only of actions of God
18 But	emphatic – ‘but on the contrary’
19 weeping/crying	weeping refers to felt pain, crying to inflicted pain
20 he who fails...accursed	it will be as though anyone who lived to less than 100 would have died ‘young’ as a punishment from God
23 people	Hebrew is ‘seed’

Humankind's two destinies

Background and Word List

Isaiah is so full of good news, it is shocking to notice that he identifies each section of chapters 40-66 by ending 'but there is no peace for the wicked.' (48:22, 57:21 and the startling 66:24). Jesus and his apostles confirmed this difference between the destinies of the repentant who ask God for mercy and the impenitent wicked. see Bible connections below.

Sharing the Word

Use

'Hearing the Word' can be used alone, with one other person, or in a group

Preparing for a group

Time put in alone beforehand will greatly benefit time spent together.

Work through the stages - LOOK, LEARN, LISTEN, LIVE.

Write down your own questions and answers. *

Format

- a. LOOK - Any questions? (If answer is known or not!)
Relevant cross references in rest of the Bible?
- b. LEARN - Answers to questions?
- c. LISTEN - Key verse and Main Point?
- d. LIVE - What does it show about God /His grace/ Jesus?
What should I do

n.b. Leave plenty of time for the LIVE section!

By also eating together and a time of prayer, you will have shared something of the life of the early church! (Acts 2:42-47)

Remember!

As we gather round God's Word -

- a) Listen to the views of others.
- b) Make room for the novice. (They can join in too when you start by listing 'Any questions'.)
- c) Don't let the 'knowledgeable' dominate. Encourage everyone to think for themselves.
- d) Try to include others, especially 'seekers', in your time together.

* The process is explained and practiced in a four-hour course, suitable for all, called 'An Introduction to 'Hearing the Word'

“I can read the Bible for myself!”

To show that the Bible is accessible to all, the Rev Nigel Barge, a former minister of Torrance Parish Church, has devised a tool called ‘Hearing the Word’.

The Manual explains the basic principles of Bible reading, teaches them by means of an interactive course,
and practices them on a single passage, Mark 10:35-45,
Participants follow in a Workbook: Hearing the Word - Introduction, which includes the next six passages in Mark,
so they may follow on for themselves.

As the principles apply equally to all, the course will both instruct the novice and refresh the ‘hardened’ Bible student!
